

VISA EXTENSIONS

VISIT VISA EXTENSION

Visitors may make an extension of stay application within 7 days before their limit of stay expires. Applications will be considered on its own merits.

WORK VISA EXTENSION

While working for the same employer, a three-year visa will be granted with the first extension. Extra documentation will be required if the sponsoring company is newly established. A 1-year visa is granted on approval.

ENTREPRENEUR VISA EXTENSION

If an applicant has an investment-based employment visa (i.e., entrepreneur visa) and the company is recently established in Hong Kong, a one-year or three-year visa will be granted on approval of an application depending on the satisfaction of the business review.

DEPENDANT VISA EXTENSION

For a dependent visa extension, if the applicant's family status remains unchanged, applying for an extension of stay is relatively straightforward. Upon approval, if the sponsor is a permanent resident, a three-year dependent visa will be granted. Otherwise, the new visa will expire on the same date as the sponsor.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR VISA EXTENSION

- An application form ID 91 with the applicant's signature and ID 481 A for dependents;
- Original of the applicant's passport;
- Confirmation letter from the sponsor.

PROCESSING TIME

One day to one week from the date of submission.
